

How long is an alien finger?

Children went outside and collected sticks. They painted them different colours to make them look like alien fingers.

Once the fingers were dry children were asked to match the length of the fingers with cubes and count how many cubes they had.

Some of the children wrote the numbers down whilst others added the code c to represent cubes.

